

Eleven life-size bronze sculptures
Are coming to Downtown Pleasanton
Between April 1st and June 30th, 2010!

The City of Pleasanton Civic Arts Program will feature a temporary exhibit of works by Internationally known realist Sculptor Seward Johnson. Be sure to visit them—and bring your camera along! Walking tour maps will soon be available at participating businesses in late March, the Parks & Community Services office, or the credenza in the lobby of City Hall, 200 Old Bernal.
